

Moore now officially Huron's supervisor

George W. Moore, 30, Huron Township clerk and area resident for the last 25 years, is Huron Township's new supervisor.

Moore, who has been acting supervisor since May 7 when Republican Supervisor Douglas C. Rhoads resigned, was appointed by the township board at last Thursday's board meeting.

The new supervisor was elected township clerk in last November's general election. He will serve the unexpired portion of Rhoads' term and supervise a community of 8,000 persons.

To fill the vacancy caused by Moore's appointment, the township board named Mrs. Mary Lou Carey, 37, mother of two children and sister-in-law of Harry Carey, member of the township board, to the post of township clerk.

Mrs. Carey was defeated for the clerk's position in the 1966 primary election. She has been a constable in the township since April.

Moore, who recently announced that he was a candidate for the supervisor's appointment, was named to the post by a vote of three to two.

Democratic Board members, Harvey Carey, Donald Radabaugh and Raymond Kreger approved the appointment. Republicans Edward Helwig and Roy Baker voted against the appointment.

The Republicans also voted against the appointment of Mrs. Carey, who is a resident of Huron Township 21 years.

Moore accepted the appointment and stated that he would work with all the residents and board members and would do "the best I can for the community." He asked for the cooperation of all in the township.

As supervisor, Moore will receive an annual salary of $12,165 as against $9,108 as clerk. The terms of Moore and Mrs. Carey will expire in 1974.

Moore, a bachelor, was employed by General Motors from 1963-65. He is presently a partner in the Astro Realty Co., New Boston.

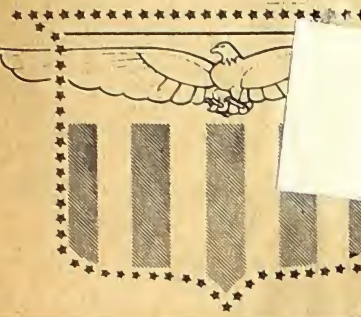

Mrs. Carey announced that she will leave full-time employment at the Livonia Plant of Fisher Body to assume the duties of township clerk.

Helwig, in voting against the appointment, stated that he "could not vote for a man to be supervisor if the people elected him township clerk. It isn't fair."

In changing a previous statement of not wanting the supervisor's post, Moore said he decided to seek the post when board member Helwig nominated former supervisor George Angel for the post at a recent board meeting.

"Angel was defeated by Douglas Rhoads last November. I couldn't approve the appointment of Angel as supervisor. I decided to enter the race," Moore said.

Bond issues nixed; two voted to board

By HENRY CANTIN

Two school building bond propositions, totaling $12,675,000, submitted by the Romulus Board of Education, were defeated overwhelmingly in Monday's school election.

The district voters also filled two school board posts from among 10 candidates.

Re-elected to a new one-year term was incumbent Gervazio Canejo, 41, of 16321 Dodge, Romulus, whose four-year term expired this June.

Also elected was newcomer Mrs. Diane L. Boger, 24, mother of two children, of 9469 Essex, Romulus. She will serve a four-year term.

Franklin Filkins, 29, of 6887 Ball Rd., Romulus, son of a school board member, was defeated.

Filkins received an interim appointment by the school board this year to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of William M. Oakley, now a Romulus City council member.

The unofficial vote returns on the bond proposals were:

Bond Proposal One in the amount of $11,500,000, was defeated by a nearly two to one vote total.

The vote was 754 "yes" vote to 1,273 "no" votes.

Bond Proposal Two in the amount of $1,125,000 was defeated by a four to one vote. The total vote against the bond issue was 1,612 "no" votes to 404 "yes" votes.

The vote results are to be checked by the Board of Education. Robert W. McConaghy reported that the vote turnout was one of the largest in recent years. Official vote count was not reported at election time.

The vote returns of other candidates are as follows:

For the four-year term one to be elected:

Rev. Arthur Gregory, 369 votes; Charles R. Kline, 130 votes; Andrew Lopota, 97 votes; and Gordon C. Silvey, 321 votes.

For the one-year term:

David H. Delozier, 190 votes; Mrs. Dorothy R. Phenix, 478 votes; and Hulen Yates, 628 votes.

Approval of both bond proposals would have increased the school district's debt tax levy by $5.16 per $1,000 of assessed property value. The $11.5 million bond issue

GERVAZIO CANEJO was to finance the erection, furnishing and equipping new elementary school buildings, in addition to existing school buildings.

Mrs. Richert, Larabell retained Huron electors fill board

Huron School District voters re-elected two incumbent school board members to four-year terms and filled three board vacancies caused by the school district's recent recall vote in Monday's annual school election.

Re-elected to new terms were Louis C. Larabell Jr., 48, of 28851 West Road, New Boston, current school vice president, and Mrs. Jean E. Richert, 37, present school board secretary, of 19270

Hannan Rd., New Boston.

Elected for a term ending in June, 1972, was Leopold Betz, 46, of 19031 Savage Rd., Belleville, who was appointed to the school board this year to fill a recall vacancy.

Two new comers were elected to serve terms ending in June, 1974. They were James W. Pershing, 34, of 19611 Clark Rd., Belleville; and Lincoln W. Ward II, 33, of 23883 Clark Rd., Belleville.

Pershing and Ward are officials of the citizens committee "People for Huron" that spearheaded this year's recall campaign against three former board members.

The total vote cast in the election was reported to be 1,145 by School Superintendent Byron K. Antcliff.

The school district's vote registrations totaled 3,100 persons.

Mrs. Richert lead all candidates with a vote total of 754. She was followed by Larabell, with 729 votes, Betz with 736, Pershing with 698 votes, and Ward with 669.

Civil service ordinance defeated by city voters

The voters in the City of Romulus turned down a Civil Service Ordinance and Program in a special election held in conjunction with the annual school district election.

The unofficial vote return was 744 votes against the proposed ordinance to 615 votes for the ordinance.

The city council-approved Civil Service Ordinance was presented to the city's electorate for their consideration as required in the City Charter.

The charter required that such an ordinance be presented to the voters within 18 months of city incorporation which was on May, 25, 1970. If approved the program would have covered 50 to 60 employees.

At a recent city council meeting, Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael, voiced his personal opinion against the proposed ordinance, saying that he didn't think it was necessary to have both civil service and an union contract.

The city is presently in negotiations on union contract for city employees.

The charter provides that the city can submit the ordinance again if it so desires, it was reported.

The vote results by precincts are as follows:

In PCHA investigation

No one will come forward

By JOE CHAREST
Daily Eagle Staff Writer

Anonymous letters and a lack of supporting information are apparently preventing an in-depth investigation by the State Attorney General's office into alleged irregularities within the Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA).

Assistant Attorney General Mrs. Maxine Virtue, directing the PCHA inquiry from Lansing, said yesterday that her office has requested interviews from anyone who might have information which would lead to a full-scale investigation, but as of yet no one has come forward.

Ecorse Councilman and PCHA Board Member Tracy E. Salisbury, who led his city council in drafting a resolution calling for the investigation, said yesterday he doesn't think that an interview will be necessary.

"I don't want to see anybody hurt or embarrassed as far as an investigation is concerned," Salisbury commented. "The only thing I want to see are results and changes."

Among the charges levelled in the Ecorse Council resolution at the end of March were "feather bedding" as a result of "pecuniary interest arrangements"; that the 1971-72 fiscal year budget adopted in March "appears to be illegal in regards to the monies appropriated for public relations"; and the fact that "90 per cent of all operating expenses are not approved by board resolution, leaving only incidental expenses for Central Office to be okayed by the board."

Salisbury himself, during PCHA board meetings, had levelled charges of conflict of interest involving emergency billing at Outer Drive Hospital, and said there "were and still are" members of the board of directors who are seeking their own interests in various PCHA ventures.

Voters in the City of Romulus and the Township of Sumper have elected delegates to the newly formed Communities United for Action (CUFA) which will direct and supervise a new anti-poverty program.

Elected in Romulus were Michael Gersky, 37250 Herman, and Jack Bath, 32115 Bruce St. Each received 18 votes in the election which was held at the Beverly Elementary School on June 7.

Romulus alternates who were elected are Charles Dick Jr., of 34449 California Ave., and Geneva Clark, 6327 Dexter, who received 15 and 16 votes respectively. The total number who voted was 32.

In the Township of Sumper, Noah Folks, 27000 Martinsville Rd. and James Grafty, 28231 Martinsville Rd., both of New Boston, were elected. Folks received 27 votes and Grafty, 18 votes.

Sumper Township alternates and vote totals are: Mrs. Cynthia Holmes, 45870 Wear Rd. 20 votes; and Mrs. Dollie Hubbard, 22625 Sumper Rd., 26 votes. There were 62 persons who cast ballots.

The CUFA project, amounting to $1 million, includes free dental care, birth control counseling, transportation for the aged and infirm and referrals for job training.

Federal funds finance 80 percent of the program and the remainder comes from local funds and services.

City commits funds to urban renewal

A resolution committing the City of Romulus to its one-quarter share of financing the initial phase of the community's Urban Renewal Redevelopment Program has been approved by the city council.

The council also approved resolutions providing terms and conditions for entering into a contract for the execution of the proposed federal loan and capital grant contract with the U.S. Department of Housing and CUFA was authorized in April by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners after a cut-off of federal funds for the county program due to dissension among directors in earlier anti-poverty programs.

Sixteen anti-poverty representatives to CUFA were chosen in eight suburban communities including Romulus and Sumper.

Student fights lead to arrests

Several fights between students at the Romulus Senior High School last Tuesday afternoon resulted in the arrest and scheduled court appearance for three juveniles.

Three juveniles are charged with disorderly conduct.

Romulus Police Chief Jacob J. Koch reported the three boys tried to enter their classrooms Wednesday following their suspension from school Tuesday for fighting.

The police chief said that approximately 20 youths started to fight in the halls and washrooms Tuesday afternoon. Two were slightly injured and filed complaints with the police department.

Police made no arrests on Tuesday. High School Principal Gerald Nault said that police were called in when students from other schools congregated in the parking lot of the high school and some entered the high school.

Wayne County Sheriff's officers and Romulus police guarded the halls until Tuesday's classes were dismissed.

Chief Koch reported that the disturbances appeared to be

Romulus city council opposes extra judge

A proposed senate bill increasing the number of judges from one to two in the 34th District Court, headquartered in the City of Romulus, has received the opposition of the Romulus City Council.

The city council has submitted its objections to State Sen. William Faust, whose 13th Senatorial District embraces the court's jurisdiction.

The bill is now before the Senate Judiciary Committee headed by Sen. Robert Richardson.

Sen. Faust informed the city council last week that he will appear before the committee when the bill is discussed and voice the opposition of Romulus to the proposed bill.

The 34th District Court covers the cities of Belleville and Romulus and the townships of Huron, Sumpter and Van Buren.

amount of $3.5 million has been approved by HUD officials.

The city's financial share in the initial undertaking is approximately $750,000, George Wilhelm, Urban Renewal director for Romulus reported.

The city will issue rehabilitation bonds to finance its one-fourth share of the project. The bonds can be issued anytime during the next three years.

They will be paid off by millage amounting to .34 of a mill over the 15-year life of the re-development bond program, Wilhelm reported to council.

He added that the federal government required the city's faith and credit for its financial share before paying the city the federal grant.

The city's share can be reduced by credits in the line of improvements to the Urban Renewal location, such as sewers, streets, schools etc.

The federal grant would be used to start redeveloping the area.

City money would not be needed immediately, Wilhelm said.

educational facilities to meet future student enrollment increase, officials stated.

The $1,250,000 bond issue was to finance the construction of a swimming pool at Romulus Senior High School.

The current millage for bond debt retirement is $3.50 per $1,000 of assessed property valuation. The present school operating millage is $26.90.

McConaghy recently stated that if the bond proposal for new school buildings is not approved by the voters, the Board of Education has no alternative but to run it again.

State law, however, prevents the same amount being presented again within a six months period.

Canvasser appointed

Mrs. Gloria Chandler of Romulus, A Republican, has been appointed to the Board of Canvassers by the Romulus School Board.

She will complete the term of Gordon C. Silvey, who resigned to run for the school board.

Local officials in attendance at Ford municipal conference

Seventy-five municipal officials representing 12 communities, participated in Congressman William D. Ford's seventh annual Municipal Official's Conference in the nation's capitol.

The conference is held each year in Washington by Congressman Ford to acquaint local officials in the 15th Congressional District with Federal programs offering financial and other aid to cities and townships. A similar meeting will be held later in the year for school officials.

Officials from the City of Belleville at the conference included Mayor Royce E. Smith and City Council Members Thomas Hamlin and Kenneth Palmer.

Officials from the City of Romulus were Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael, City Clerk Leonard J. Folmar, City Treasurer Albert Glinski and the following members of city council: Jimmie Raspberry, Ellis T. Pennington, Fred Junior Block, William M. Oakley, Brooker R. Edwards and James C. Stewart.

Officials from Sumpter Township in attendance were: Supervisor Elmer Parraghi, Mrs. Amanda Roberts, township treasurer; Clarence J. Hoffman Jr., township clerk; James Brown, trustee; Richard Krajewski, trustee; Virgil Humphreys, trustee and Henry Zabrowski, township attorney.

Trustee Jerry Maton attended from Van Buren Township.

Highlight of the conference was a hard-hitting talk by former Vice-President Hubert H. Humphrey, now a senator from Minnesota, who drew rounds of applause for his wit, his excellent analysis of municipal problems, and a proposal to solve them.

The former Vice-President also rapped the Nixon Administration's policy of withholding funds appropriated by Congress for urban renewal, mass transportation, highways, and other projects.

"This money should be released now, because the need is now," he declared. "They say they are going to release it next year, but the only reason I can see for that is because 1972 is election year."

It is estimated that Congress has appropriated more than 12 billion dollars in programs for the states, counties, and local communities which is being held back with the excuse that the release of these funds to local governments would be inflationary.

Senator Humphrey also stressed the importance of the Public Service Employment legislation recently passed by the House and Senate, but which President Nixon has threatened to veto.

"We've got millions of people out of work, but we've got plenty of work to be done in this country. There is no withholding tax on employment compensation or welfare, but there would be on money paid to our citizens for performing needed and useful work. Public service employment would be an economic bargain."

"We hear a lot about civil rights and human rights and other rights, and they are all important. But how about citizen rights? How about the right to a job?"

Congressman James G. O'Hara, of Michigan's 12th District, also appeared on the conference program to discuss the Public Service Employment Bill, of which he and Congressman Ford were leading sponsors.

Council approves overtime policy

The Romulus City Council has adopted a new policy on employee overtime.

A new order of city council requires that all requests for overtime be made in writing, with the exception of emergencies, to the mayor, who shall control employee overtime. The mayor is required to make monthly reports.

Council President Jimmie Raspberry in his report to council, recommended that council adopt some policy on overtime.

He cited the many discussions on the recently approved city operating budget and of the ways and means of making good use of budget dollars.

He added that he wasn't casting any reflections on any department head but thought that a policy on overtime should be approved.

Councilman Edmund Bizek made a motion that the mayor have full control of overtime, except in emergencies, which will be submitted to the mayor for later approval.

He was supported by Councilman Brooker R. Edwards.

The successful candidates, reportedly support the present school board administration.

For the four-year term: Mrs. Helen Harby, 367; Ross E. McLean, 419; Other candidates seeking the unexpired portions of the terms of the three recalled board members were Olaf McDavid, 409, Joseph S. Majtyka, 408, and John E. Puskar, 423.

In our opinion

Fresh ideas needed for education needs

Now that the votes are in -- almost 35,000 of them -- and counted throughout Western Wayne County, it's time for everyone to rally around our newly elected, and the holdover ones too, to resolve the problems of our schools.

With six incumbents among the defeated candidates, the people voiced their desires Monday for a complete change in Westwood and somewhat of a switch in Wayne Livonia and Van Buren school districts.

We hope the 11 new faces on the various area school boards will be able to come forth with some fresh ideas on coping with our educational difficulties and that the changes in board personnel were not made just for the sake of change.

Some changes in thinking will have to come about in at least one area that didn't have any switches in board personnel. That area is Inkster, which saw its board president and vice president win unopposed while a six-mill tax increase was rejected.

Similar rejections of millage increases were the rule of the day Monday in Michigan. About 80 per cent of the school tax hikes requested in the state were rejected. Millage renewals suffered about a 50 per cent mortality rate.

In years gone by...

A look through The Daily Eagle files at news of Western Wayne County one, 15 and 25 years ago:

BELIEVE ME... IT'S NO FUN HAVING TO BE CHARGED UP ALL THE TIME

We have to look at the millage rejections -- especially the requests for higher taxes -- as the voting public's way of condemning the property tax set-up. Although it is unfortunate that the education of our youngsters has to suffer as a result, millage elections are the public's only say in the levying of taxes.

It's time for our elected officials in Lansing to change their thinking too so all of our schools can return to full education programs.

Although we are in no way trying to cast any aspersions toward the winners in Inkster and Cherry Hill, we do regret the fact that no one felt it necessary to provide opposition for the incumbent candidates in either district.

After all, no matter how acceptable incumbent candidates are in any election, the absence of opposing views eliminates the democratic process that has built across our nation.

We also urge the residents of the various districts to contribute their share to the duties of running the schools. That is, we hope everyone in the months to come will keep an eye on what is happening -- either by attending or keeping abreast of events through the news media -- on the various boards so they will have done their own homework by the time the next elections roll around.

A summer recreation program jam-packed with something for youngsters of all ages is getting underway in the Inkster Public School district, thanks to the combined efforts of the schools and the Inkster Parks and Recreation commission. Included in the summer program will be arts and crafts, quiet games, athletic games, competitions, hikes, tours, films, conference groups and many other attractions.

Of the $500,000 total, $300,000 will go for Proposition One and $200,000 for Proposition Two as approved by Cherry Hill voters on Jan. 19, 1970.

Snowmobiles are topic in House

By EDWARD E. MAHALAK,
State Representative, 38th District

Although flowers were blooming and the grass was green outside the capitol, the attention of the House of Representatives was focused on snowmobiles. And, after lengthy debate, house members passed a comprehensive bill to regulate the winter machines.

The vote was 86 to 10. The measure is now under consideration in the Senate.

This bill is probably the most significant snowmobile legislation proposed so far anywhere in the United States. It will probably run into little, if any, opposition in the Senate.

There are close to a quarter million snowmobiles in Michigan today with more being bought each year. Snowmobiling is a popular winter activity with enjoyment aplenty... when these high-powered machines are used safely. When snowmobiles are not operated wisely, tragedy can strike. And it has struck, many times last winter. There have been a number of deaths and numerous injuries.

In addition, there has been an increasing number of complaints against snowmobiles. The result of all of this was the bill passed by the House. It would become effective Nov. 1, 1971, in time for next year's snowmobile season.

The bill would prohibit driving a snowmobile at unreasonable speeds, at night without a headlight or taillight, while hunting or carrying a loaded firearm or string bow, knowingly on private property without the owner's consent, while drunk or under the influence of drugs, too close to a dwelling other than that of the snowmobile owner, on a frozen lake near fisherman or skaters, near a sledding, skiing or skating area, across a cemetery, on an airport or on a railroad right-of-way.

Children under 14 years of age would not be able to drive a snowmobile without direct adult supervision unless they do so on property owned by their parents.

The bill also restricts noisy snowmobiles. The noise of one of the machines would not be able to legally exceed 86 decibels. This is about the same noise as is made by an accelerating so-called "muscle car." after Jan. 1, 1972, no snowmobiles could be made or sold in Michigan if their noise exceeds 82 decibels.

One provision of the bill increases registration fees for snowmachines from the present $2, $3 and $5 for one two and three-year periods to $5, $7 and $10.

Another bill passed by the House regulates dangerous pesticides. It was approved by a unanimous 96 to 0 vote and sent to the senate.

Lansing report

Education priorities in state questioned

More than 125,000 teenagers are marching into the job market from high school graduation exercises to compete with 253,464 unemployed adults ready to go to work.

State officials said at least 40,000 of them will fail to find jobs as the state unemployment rate hovers at 8.2 per cent.

"It's going to be very difficult for them," said Max Horton, deputy director of the Michigan Employment Compensation Commission.

"There are some real economic constrictions in the air. For example, we read about increased automobile production, but most of those laid off 15 months ago still haven't gone back to work." The future is equally bleak for the roughly estimated 70,000 college graduates who will be trying to start careers armed with a degree.

By DON

Horton said the state will have a "substantial surplus of teachers with no place to go," a plight newly-shared with engineering graduates. He said business administration degree holders have the best chance this year.

"The tragedy is that we've neglected vocational education in Michigan for years," he said. "It costs money and our orientation has been toward the college-bound rather than the work-bound youth.

"A few years ago I hoped the community colleges would be part of the answer. But, again, because of the price of education, they have become halfway houses for those who can't go to a four-year institution."

The last MESC operations report showed that 45,792 of the unemployed in Michigan are under 22, while 62,542 are over 45. Of the total, 142,000 have high school diplomas.

Horton said the unemployment rolls list 69,000 war veterans, some with unsaleable skills.

The pressures rising from the multiplying numbers of jobless young people are forcing Michigan toward greater concentration on vocational education.

The condition has reached the crisis stage in the view of Senator James D. Gray (D-Warren), chairman of an education subcommittee assigned to vocational education.

"What is education but preparing a child to become a well-adjusted member of society?" he asked.

However, he said Michigan is spending 80 per cent of its educational dollar on 16 per cent of the students who will graduate from college. Vocational education courses are teaching talents of 25 years ago, he said.

"It is a miracle to me that we can keep our young people in Michigan's high schools at all, especially those not destined to finish college," he said.

It would license dealers who sell pesticides and require licensed dealers to provide the state with records of their sales. In order to be licensed, a dealer would have to show adequate knowledge of the use of pesticides and pay a $50 license fee.

The records of sales would provide information on the volume and location of sales of pesticides harmful to man, wildlife and the environment. Such information would offer basic data for the control of dangerous types of pesticides.

In addition, the director of agriculture would have the authority to adopt a list of "restricted use" pesticides for the state or certain designated parts of the state. This would be done only after public hearings. The director could then regulate the distribution, time of sale and use of the restricted chemicals.

The other ecology bills were passed at about the same time. One would require all junkyards located on interstate, state primary and secondary and county primary roads to be screened, regardless of when they were established.

The present law requires screening only those established after 1966 and located along interstate and primary highways.

Reader answers letter from Carlson

To the editor:

I know that this letter will be too late for the millage election, but I feel that the people of this community should have an answer to Mr. Carlson's letter.

I am sure who ever took a 'no' stand against the millage would have made Mr. Carlson ill. I can't understand this man, when on the last millage he took a stand against it because the school was asking for more millage than they needed.

This time the millage was not looked into greatly so nobody from the Civic Association or Homeowners Association really knows if they need it or not.

When Mr. Carlson speaks strictly of Mobile Home Parks in the article dated May 29, he must not have read it at all, for there were several other reasons given for voting no. Besides a Mobile Home Park should be a very good reason when they are only allowed to pay $3 per trailer and the schools only get $1.78. If Mr. Carlson is so rich to make up for the rest of education then I would be glad to let him have my taxes too for next year.

He talks about quality education. When I graduated from Belleville High in 1963, the educational programs were rated above average. Since then the schools obtained a bond issue and a millage issue and today our school system is rated below average.

Now with just common sense it tells you the problem isn't with the people giving the schools money, then it must be the system itself and what type of teachers that are hired.

I know that we have a lot of dedicated teachers in our school system, but it's the ones that aren't dedicated that doesn't help the schools or the students out at all.

The way Mr. Carlson writes makes it sound like the Van Buren Homeowners Association said no just to vote no. Well I am a member and it took quite a bit of thought and consideration before taking a stand.

I felt like Mr. Carlson does, but then I really sat down and thought about it. My children aren't in school yet, but I am looking for their future. Is it really worth it to the kids today to vote in more millage so the board can do with it what they want and still have a below average school system?

Maybe this is the wrong way to go about the situation, but this is the only way that the taxpayers will be heard. You can attend all the school board meetings you want to and complain but they still go on and do what they please.

In the last bond issue, two elementary schools were designated. Well as you see we don't have them. When you ask the school board about it, they show just where all the money went.

The administration offices were starting to be erected the same year that our new subdivision was announced. Now I think that an elementary school would have more priority over administration luxury.

The people of this community will be asked to vote on the school bond issue again in six months and naturally after that we will be asked for more millage to operate that school.

Everybody is entitled to their own opinion and Mr. Carlson or anybody else should not put them down for that.

Thank you for listening to my opinion.

New law in Van Buren

Township ordinance to control buildings

An ordinance calling for the elimination of uncompleted, abandoned, dilapidated or deteriorated structures in Van Buren Township has been approved by the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees.

The new ordinance, known as the Van Buren Township Dilapidated Buildings Ordinance, provides penalties for violations of its rules and regulations. The effective date of the ordinance is 30 days after publication.

Further the ordinance requires that all buildings erected shall be finally enclosed in accordance with the building permit within one year of the issuance of the permit. The provision does not apply to the construction of large buildings containing more than 100,000 square feet of floor space.

The law authorizes the township to demolish such structures and assess costs to the property owner or tenant where the structure is located.

The new statute requires that all buildings and parts thereof erected on or before the effective date of the ordinance shall be completed and fully and permanently enclosed within one year, or in the alternative, shall be torn down and removed, and any excavation be filled to grade level.

The ordinance also states that no building or structure whether now existing or to be erected shall be left in a dangerous or hazardous condition by virtue of disrepair, depreciation, damage by fire, collapse or act of God or any other cause, but shall be repaired or rehabilitated and the dangerous or hazardous condition removed by the owner or occupant or in the alternative, torn down and removed.

Further provisions of the new ordinance state:

No building so damaged or destroyed to such an extent that the cost of repair and rehabilitation to place it in a safe, sound and sanitary condition exceeds 75 percent of the assessed valuation of the building at the time of repairs or rehabilitation, shall be repaired or rehabilitated unless it is made to comply with provisions of existing township building codes.

Any building damaged or destroyed to such an extent that the repair cost exceeds 100 percent of the assessed valuation shall be deemed unfit for human habitation and shall be immediately vacated, and unless made to comply with all the building code provisions, shall be demolished and removed.

The ordinance also provides that when a building is certified by the building inspector or health officer, of the township to be infected with contagious disease or is unfit for human habitation the building may be ordered vacated for 24 hours to 10 days.

The penalties for violating the terms of the new ordinance ranged from 60 days in jail and up to $500 fines or both.

LITTLE LEAGUERS OF SUMPTER—For the first time in its history, Sumpter Township has Little League Baseball. The opening game with township officials and community leaders in attendance was held last Saturday in Sumpter Park No. 1.

located at Wear and Sumpter Rds. The first game was between Sumpter and Inkster. The opening game also marked the dedication of Sumpter Park No. 1. Players who participated in the opening game posed for their photograph.

Sumpter league off and running

Little League Baseball is now official in Sumpter Township.

The first Little League Baseball game in the history of the township was played

The first game also marked the opening of the 10-acre park. The park acreage is being purchased by the township at a cost of $15,000, Turstee Richard Krajewski announced.

Attending the first was Little League game and opening of the park were township officials and leading township residents and invited guests.

Fire fighting tips given at PCHA hospitals

The "fire fighting evangelist" came to PCHA last week and as a result of his dramatic demonstrations, punctuated with thought-provoking humor, key personnel of the Peoples Community Hospital Authority now feel they are far better prepared to handle any type of fire emergency situation that might arise.

It was all part of day-long Fire Institutes conducted at each of the four PCHA hospital units by Fire Safety Specialist Lt. Robert McGrath. A 27-year veteran of the Chicago Fire Dept., McGrath is recognized as the nation's premier instructor in the training of hospital personnel in emergency fire fighting methods.

For the past 18 years Lt. McGrath has dedicated himself to this training program in the interest of contributing to greater patient safety. His training technique stresses:

—proven methods of patient evacuation.

—the handling of small fires and bed fires.

—the proper operation of all types of fire extinguishers.

—use of any available material in smothering fires.

"Exposure to fire fighting techniques automatically removes the fears of many people in regards to fire dangers," McGrath explained.

"Their training in how to react most efficiently to fire emergencies makes people extremely effective. Our experience has proved to us that five or six trained people can remove more patients and put out more fires than 40 or 50 untrained people."

In his most dramatic demonstration Lt. McGrath gets into a hospital bed and an assistant sets fire to an asbestos mat over a sheet. Then a surprised PCHA nurse had to show the lessons she had learned by using a blanket to smother the flames.

Nurses and other PCHA hospital personnel were also instructed in how to carry patients, many of them weighing several pounds more than themselves. In explaining the seven basic holds used to handle these patients, McGrath said:

"The time to learn these basic mechanics is before some emergency occurs. You don't go into a patient's room in those circumstances and say Murtle, how do we handle this guy."

The PCHA people involved in the Institutes were unanimous in their praise of the training methods.

Program for the deaf expands

The CYO camping program, acknowledged for 25 years as one of the best in the country, will add a new dimension of service this summer.

For the first 13-day period, from June 25 to July 7, the CYO will accept 60 deaf children — 30 boys and 30 girls — to be integrated in the normal camping program.

In this project, the CYO is cooperating with the Archdiocesan Ministry to the Handicapped and other organizations that support the deaf.

They have high hopes that the philosophy behind this unprecedented move could revolutionize the whole concept of the treatment of the deaf.

"In the past, we have botched up the education of the deaf to an alarming degree," says Fr. Dayton Gnau, director of the Archdiocesan Ministry to the Handicapped. "We have isolated the deaf children in schools, in camps, in clubs, in social and recreation programs of their own. This is a tremendous mistake. These deaf kids aren't odd. They have great capacities which will be fully developed only if those who can hear will try to speak their language."

"In the CYO camping experiment, which I hope will be a pilot program for the whole country, the deaf kids will be treated like any other children, which is no more and no less than they deserve."

They will be accorded respect for their value as human beings. They will find dignity and worth according to their level of competence."

Fr. Gnau hopes that this will be the beginning of an effort to integrate the hard of hearing throughout the whole CYO structure of sports, clubs, scouting and social services. CYO officials hope so, too.

Fr. Gnau and his aides will conduct a crash program to teach the CYO camp counselors how to work with deaf children.

Experts warn against phosphate substitutes

Health experts have warned that Detroit's upcoming ban on the sale of phosphate-containing household detergents may encourage the distribution of highly-caustic cleaning compounds and lead to an increase in accidental poisoning of children.

The Detroit City Council on January 26 passed an ordinance effective July 1 that will ban the sale in the city of most detergents that contain phosphate. The ordinance was passed in an attempt to reduce algae growth in Lake Erie that is caused by nutrients in sewage.

Many scientists insist that reducing the phosphate content of detergents will not have the desired effect on the lake, and have warned strongly against the health hazards of returning to the use of non-phosphate types of detergents of detergents because they can be highly dangerous if swallowed.

Dr. Lyle G. Waggoner, a prominent ear, nose and throat specialist in Detroit said, "If a child accidentally swallows a phosphate-formula detergent -- which is not infrequent -- he may merely have a mild gastrointestinal upset and in a short time will feel well again with no after-effects."

"However, some of the non-phosphate cleaners are very alkaline and may severely damage the mouth and esophagus. Vomiting increases the seriousness of the injury because the throat and mouth are exposed to the chemicals twice."

Dr. Waggoner, who treats many children every year who have accidentally swallowed poisonous or caustic substances, warned that even though non-phosphate detergents carry health warning labels, it is unrealistic not to expect young children to open the boxes and sample the ingredients.

"There is no child-proof package on the market and I feel it is extremely unwise to introduce into homes a potentially harmful type of detergent to replace the safe ones now in use. This is especially true when we note that most scientists say that taking phosphates out of detergents will not help solve our water pollution problems, and in fact may introduce new and more harmful chemicals," he said.

Dr. Jesse Steinfeld, surgeon general of the United States, also has warned against hasty action in substituting other chemicals for phosphates in detergents.

In testimony before the Federal Trade Commission,

Dr. Steinfeld said non-phosphate detergents may expose children to "serious risk of irreversible loss of sight, loss of voice, ulcerations and blockage of the esophagus, severe skin 'burns' and even death."

Dr. Robert Gosselin, chairman of the Department of Pharmacology at the Dartmouth Medical School and one of the country's foremost experts in poison control, has said, "phosphate detergents should not be discouraged until there is available at least one alternative product that is established to be safe as well as effective."

He warned that non-phosphate detergents can "result in serious and even permanent injuries." He noted that the danger may be intensified because parents of small children have not needed to take extraordinary precautions to keep their youngsters away from the present detergents. However, the more caustic sodium formulas will require special handling and storage.

Cadet squadron slates golf day

The Wayne-Romulus Cadet Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol has announced plans for its second annual golf day. Thanks to the cooperation of Kenneth Randall, owner and operator of K-Golf, the CAP unit will be able to raise funds to support its youth program.

K-Golf, located on the north service drive, just off I-94 between Ypsilanti and Belleville, will be operated by the squadron during Saturday, June 19, with the day's receipts going to the CAP unit. K-Golf offers driving range as well as an 18-hole miniature golf course.

In addition to the one-day effort on June 19, squadron members are also selling tickets for both the driving range and the miniature golf course. Again, proceeds will go to the civil Air Patrol. The tickets will be redeemed by K-Golf anytime prior to the Aug. 1.

The funds will be used to support the cadet program by financing repairs to the unit bus, used for transporting cadets, purchasing uniform and training supplies, and buying or repairing other equipment.

VFW post planning Father's Day dinner

Bodenmiller reported that invitations have been mailed to a number of persons and the public is also invited.

Student from Finland hosts exchange picnic

Pirkko Puonti, an 18 year old exchange student from Hamina, Finland who, through the Youth for Understanding program, has been living with the Paul D. Behnke family of Prescott Rd., Romulus, entertained Saturday with a pot-luck picnic at the home of her hosts.

Pipa, as she is called, attends Flat Rock High School where she is an eleventh grade student.

Among those invited to attend the picnic were students from Germany, Finland, Japan, Brazil, Belgium, Chile and the Philippines, all participants in the Ann Arbor-based Youth for Understanding international teenaged student exchange program. Although Pipa has completed her year of study here, she will have to repeat eleventh grade when she returns to Finland, where, she says, education is a very serious business.

"School here," said Pipa, "is so much easier, and more fun. Teachers and students treat each other as human beings here. We have to take our education very seriously in Finland."

The Puonti family has been involved in Youth for Understanding for a number of years. Pipa's mother and father, who are teachers were hosts to an exchange student from Michigan four years ago.

Courses in filmmaking offered at Cranbrook

Students, teachers, filmmakers or anyone interested in films will want to focus in on the Cranbrook Summer Film Practicum, a series of film courses beginning June 28 in the Cranbrook School Assembly Hall, 520 Lone Pine Road. Parking is available at 500 Lone Pine.

Five courses tailored to different ability levels and interests in film will be taught by Cranbrook School filmmaking teachers John Geoghegan and William Moran. The two teachers began teaching filmmaking as part of the English department at Cranbrook School, and have developed it to where it is now a separate, complete department.

"Advanced 8mm Film Production", for people with experience in 8mm film, will meet 7 to 10 p.m. Mondays, June 28 through July 26. The course will be a seminar workshop involving critical analysis of both student and professional films.

Sessions will cover the following topics: tools of the trade; lighting and focus; composition and camera angle; transitions and special effects; and editing and sound. Fee of $60 includes texts, films and processing and basic equipment.

"8mm Film Production", for teachers and anyone 16 years of age or older with some formal film training, will meet 7 to 10 p.m. Mondays, June 28 through July 26. Elementary camera technique, lighting and editing will be reviewed with importance on the practical implementation of 8mm film for better filmmaking and teaching.

The course will utilize filmmaking lectures and discussions of production problems. Student and professional films will be technically analyzed. Fee of $60 includes text, film, processing and basic equipment.

"Films and Novels: An Approach to Teaching", for teachers and others interested in comparing the arts, will meet 7 to 10 p.m. on Tuesdays, June 29 through July 27. Different aspects of writing comparative papers and film scripts will be discussed, and the area of special projects for students will be surveyed. At least one novel and film will be studied and compared. Fee of $30 includes text.

"Film Appreciation and History", of special interest to English and film teachers, will meet 7 to 10 p.m. Wednesdays, June 30 through July 28. The art of film will be developed through lectures, viewing and discussion.

Films of Edison, Melies and Porter will initiate sessions that will trace crucial genres of film (Russia of the '20's, Germany 1919-1925 and the American silent cinema).

For more information or for registration forms write John Geoghegan, Cranbrook School, P.O. Box 803, Bloomfield Hills, Mich. 48013, or call 644-1600, Ext. 233 or 235.

'The Abominable Dr. Phibes' is gory, slick and unbelievable

James H. Nicholson and Samuel Z. Arkoff, executive producers, present an American-International Picture, "The Abominable Dr. Phibes," written by James Whiton and William Goldstein, directed by Robert Fuest, produced by Louis M. Heyward and Ronald S. Dunas. Movielab Color. Rated GP. 94 minutes. At the Quo Vadis Penthouse with the following cast: Vincent Price, Joseph Cotton, Virginia North and cameos by Terry-Thomas, Hugh Griffith.

By HOWARD ALLEN
Eagle Movie Critic

Well, if you have nine men to eliminate, you might just as well do it with a little class, for heaven's sake, and what could be more classy than eliminating them by visiting upon them the ten plagues which God sent through Moses to the Pharaoh of Egypt when he refused to let the people of Israel out of bondage?

That's the thinking of Vincent Price as "The Abominable Dr. Phibes," a sometimes tasty and occasionally aimless, but always modish bit of horror from American-International.

Dr. Phibes, once a world famous organist, which allows him to make like the Phantom of the Opera in his bizarre old house, saw his wife die on the operating table and decides to wreck vengeance on the medical team which handled the case. The fact that he was supposed to have died in an auto accident doesn't slow him up one bit.

His biblical studies provide the key and thus the Harve

Street bunch become the recipients of some most unwelcome visits. The Lord sent Pharaoh boils, vermin, frogs, blood, hail, plague, wild beasts, locusts, darkness and slew the first-born of Egypt. So one doctor is stung to death by bees, another has his face shredded by bats, a third is killed by a booby-trapped frog mask at a masked ball, another has his blood removed by Phibes, another is frozen to death by a hail machine, another is attacked by rats, one is impaled by a unicorn figure and one is eaten by locusts. The fate of the last doctor, the gruff and somber Joseph Cotton, defies description.

Unfortunately the film often becomes camp as when Terry-Thomas, in a cameo role as one of the doctors, gets his while screening dirty home movies. Then there is Phibes' home, filled with clockwork devices out of the ancient and rococo excesses of bygone movie sets. As for Phibes dialogue, he would seem to have been frightened by a romantic poet.

There are also several unexplained circumstances, like the current state of Phibes health, like the mysterious assistance of the beautiful silent Vulnavia (Virginia North), whose motives are never explained. One is also at a loss to explain just how Phibes carried out some of his plots, especially the latter ones under the noses of the police. In the movies anything is possible.

"The Abominable Dr. Phibes" is stylish, ingenious, gory and slick. As a believable horror film, however, the viewer would do well to put his trust in such reputable products as wolfsbane and tanna leaves, rather than here.

Soap box derby history on display at Detroit museum

The Soap Box Derby Story is being told at the Detroit Historical Museum through an exhibit of 16 different Soap Box Derby cars, plus a panorama of giant photographs illustrating the changes in cars, rules and locations throughout the history of the Detroit Derby.

Featured parts of the giant display is a side-by-side comparison of the 1934

National Soap Box Derby champion and the 1970 champion, plus the 1940 National Championship car of Detroit, Tommy Fisher.

This summer like nearly every other summer in many years, hundreds of boys in Detroit and thousands all over the United States will spend scores of hours preparing small gravity-powered cars for what may be the greatest event in amateur racing — The All American Soap Box Derby.

Something that will prove invaluable to youngsters planning on entering the official Detroit and Suburban Motor City Soap Box Derbies on July 24 is a 10-minute slide presentation on "how to build a Soap Box Derby racer" and a cut-away racer with instructions for building the car.

Soap Box Derby National Control Board Member, James W. Slower said, "This exhibit is the first opportunity offered to both young and old fans to review the history of the Soap Box Derby in depth — right from its beginnings up to today — both nationally and locally."

The exhibit is co-sponsored by Chevrolet Division of General Motors and The Detroit News, in cooperation with the Detroit Historical Museum. It will remain on display in the Kresge Exhibit Hall through September 26, 1971.

The Detroit Historical Museum is located at Woodward and Kirby. Exhibit hours are Wednesday through Sunday from 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.

In Detroit this summer

Fourteen ethnic festivals set

Metropolitan Detroiters will have many chances to enter many different worlds this summer by coming downtown on weekends to enjoy an exciting series of 14 ethnic festivals.

The "1971 Summer of International Festivals" is the result of hard work and intensive planning by the Central Business District Association (CBDA), and City of Detroit and representatives of ethnic groups.

Site for most of the festivals is immediately behind Cobo Hall along Marina Drive and running west to Third Avenue. The area will come alive every weekend between June 18 and September 20. It has been blacktopped and beautified by trees, with benches, booths and tables also provided.

Mayor Roman S. Gribbs said, "The success of the Greek Festival in Greektown, the German Festival in Harmonie Park and the Polish and Mexican Festivals in the Civic Center last summer was convincing precedent not only to repeat the events, but to expand the number of ethnic groups participating and to present a full summer's program of these activities."

Special features of the festivals will include dancing and live entertainment on a lighted stage. Detroiters will have their taste buds tickled by food samples representative of the different cultures. Also, art objects will be sold in pavilions and booths.

A parade on Saturday, June 19 will start at 3 p.m. in Grand Circus Park, to officially open the festive series.

All ethnic groups will be represented in the march and are encouraged to dress in the costumes of their mother countries.

Each of the festivals will run between 6 and 11 p.m. on Fridays and noon to 11 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays. Admission is free and everyone is invited.

Because of the enthusiastic response to last year's festivals and the high interest expressed by additional ethnic groups, CBDA and City officials expect large crowds for each of the 1971 Festivals.

German-Americans will kick off the series of festivals this Sunday. On June 25 there will be an Italian festival. July 2 is the weekend of the International Freedom Festival, coinciding with the Greek festival in Greektown.

Two festivals will be held July 9, a Bavarian festival in Harmonie Park and a Far Eastern festival. July 16 will be the day for celebration by the Captive Nations group, made up of representatives of 15 nations.

July 23 will be the Afro-American festival, while July 30 will be the Summer Festival of India. A Ukrainian festival is scheduled for August 6 and a Polish festival for August 13.

Other ethnic groups are Armenian, with a festival on Aug. 20, Scandinavian, Aug. 27, and Mexican, Sept. 10.

Glass show set at art museum

The creative possibilities of glass — in color, texture and shape — are revealed in 32 sculptural modern pieces to be shown at the Detroit Institute of Arts for one month, from Saturday, June 19 through Sunday, July 18.

This exhibition was selected from the invitational Toledo Glass National held at the Toledo (Ohio) Museum of Art in 1970. Ten nationally-recognized artists are represented: Andre G. Billeci, Dale Chihuly, C. Fritz Dreisbach, Robert C. Fritz, Kent F. Ipsen, Dominick Labino, Marvin B. Lipofsky, Harvey K. Littleton, Richard Charles Marquis and Joel Myers.

The show is touring under the auspices of the Smithsonian Institution. Its Detroit opening marks the first of a new series of exhibitions under the state sponsorship of Michigan Outreach, a program of the Michigan Council for the Arts. After July 18, "Toledo Glass National H" will tour additional Michigan cities through mid-December.

Michigan Outreach is an expansion of Project Outreach, a program undertaken by the Detroit Institute of Arts under a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts. In its enlarged form, Outreach will work with selected communities in the state to develop programs in the visual, performing, literary and environmental arts.

ACCORDING TO WEBSTER... all it takes to change a pear into a pearl is the letter "L". According to the expert Gourmet testator which we personally received (to you it sounds like "Oo-oh" and "Aah" and "Yummy"). To me it's expert testimony! When we lunched at the GOLDEN COIN (1870 S. Wayne Rd., in Westland) 'other day... it's Chef Wesley who changes everything he prepares into veritable pearls! Last Friday, when we made the scene, O-N-E of the Luncheon Specials was Roast Beef Au Jus served "on" dark Pumpkin-ricel, with a GREAT Salad... just the kind that does Wes' R. Beef justice... and we KNEW we were in the presence of Gourmets... because there are the kind that crowd in there. And we knew expert testimony when we heard it. (We've heard a few oo-oh's and aah's before!)... and we KNEW we had to tell you about it! EVERY day is special at the Golden Coin, just because of those daily specials, be it Hungarian Pork Goulash en Casserole... a Chuck Wagon Steak... Veal Parmesan... or whatever a genius creates! And no "funnies" about The Coin today... because if you pass up a chance to toast Dad's own weekend there... you're funny enuff!!

THERE ARE MANY, MANY ways to say pleasure. You can say charming... attractive... sweet... delectable... satisfying... delightful... luxurious... cordial... even seraphic. Me, I just say MELODY LANE, and growing numbers of people agree! But then, I try to tell it like it is. There are those who say it in another language. Since SEVEN languages are spoken here... you will find your every desire is "pleasurably" fulfilled. Bring the family to The Melody Lane (at 9301 S. Telegraph, in Taylor) for the FATHER'S DAY BUFFET BRUNCH, on Sunday... to start off a perfect day! You'll be treating Dad, and everyone else, to an unusually tasty meal... as they apparently COOK in about seven different languages, also! Everything imaginable is there at the Sunday Family Buffet for you to enjoy. You'll find yourself making it a Sunday habit... and you'll find every Sunday seeming more special, too! A-N-D: you know that weekend you're always "going to" get away for... only it's too expensive to think about... or too far from the small fry... or, etc, etc? Consider The Melody Lane... and breakfast in bed... and Cocktails by candlelight... and heaven-on-earth just minutes away from home... AND try t-h-a-t in seven languages!! It will say pleasure!

WALLY & SANDY REID came away from the water with us... to spend a couple days in town... just to be different. This couple, who are using their sabbatical to write a very excellent play, sat with us at THE DANISH INN, which is at 3205 Grand River, in Farmington, extolling the virtues of dining in such pleasant surroundings... while their visiting Father, on his own trip "in" to spend a Father's Day-Week with his favorite Daughter & Son-in-law... ate quietly. "Whaddya think of this Danish Inn, Dad?" we queried. "When it comes to good food" said Mr. Raymond Gardner (many years on the bench in Indiana), "I praise it simply by enjoying it. My Daughter, now, she HAS TO talk and eat at the same time. And when we find something as good as this, she remembers her Chinese ancestor." "Chinese?" everyone asked at once. "Yes!" said Dad. "The famous ON-TO-LO-NG!" Sandy, who can't be topped, explained that Dad had formerly "given out so much time... he hadn't any left for himself." He retired, she added, just to think up tales like that one. "Not really!" said Mr. Gardner. "But I DID retire hoping to find a Restaurant like this one!" (And THAT from a man who has always handed out good advice!)

THE SOUND OF MUSIC can really be "something else" sometimes... and JAMIE COE, with his six-piece Combo... makes it just that, and capital M Music, too, at THE LEDGEROCK LOUNGE, 34828 Michigan Ave., in Wayne! And what do you find at a strictly libation-and-sound place like this one? Lotsa surprises, for sure!! There ARE people... great crowds of 'em... who stop just for one drink and the sound of something good! You find, also to your surprise, that these are age 25-and-up kinda people. Not kids... not noise... but a great sound and a nice place to bend an elbow! AND... WE FOUND OUT ANOTHER thing... but can't give more than a whisper about it! THIS IS THE PLACE for somebody with a yen to take over a complete Kitchen operation, which has enjoyed a great reputation in the past, which is fully equipped, which is made to order in a City minus ANY top Eatery (and a City with a population of 21,054!) So if you wanna friendly drink... if you like the sound of mod-but-not-solid-rock... if you're lookin' for a good investment... or if you just happen to be out in Wayne... stop at the Ledgerock Lounge... and ask for Leo. He'll tell ya the rest!

WHATT A TIME OF YEAR to say "Wild 'n' Woolly"! There's just no other way, though, to say STOCK EXCHANGE! You could say Margie Gartz. THAT'S w-h-o you'll find there. Or you could say HAPPENING. Because that's w-h-a-t you'll find there. And you gotta say FUN CLUB! Because it's a hand-clapping, toe-tapping, complete-with-Knockers (AND k-n-o-c-k-e-r-s!) kinda place. Or you could just throw up your hands and admit you NEVER know what this place will come up with next. And take the fun-man's word for it: It's ALL true!! For entertainment, start at the TOP TROY MADDOX & THE MARK II are strictly BIG TIME Entertainment. YOU try to see Gary Crista's hands move on the Organ. I get nothin' butta butt! YOU tell me that John Ruff doesn't out-Krupa any Drummer you ever heard. (I'd hate to call you a fibber in print!)... or tell STAND-UP CROWDS at Lollipop Lane and The Hartfield and a few other places we've caught 'em that this group isn't the greatest. You'll starta riot, though! So don't tell any stories like that on Monday Nites. Because they have ALL that, plus a Guest Artist. Tuesday & Thursday Ladies come s-t-a-g. Wednesday... Friday... Saturday... Troy is liable to have YOU up there singin' it with him. And you know what they say at that "other" Stock Exchange: "Money isn't everything". That's because the Westland STOCK EXCHANGE & SHOW BAR, at 27554 W. Warren, is everything else! (THERE'S WHERE you'll really meet The Gartz!)

NOW THAT'S WHAT I CALL a Pardon! "Where do I begin to describe a spot like VLADIMIR'S?" I wondered. And... "Gimme that pencil!" sed Diane Martina who had just been there the night before, along with her Barrister Friend (hovzat for keepin' secrets?) to honor her Father, newly installed as Prexy of Michigan's oldest Fraternal Order. "I'll tell 'em" she said dreamily, "about the soft lights. About the Red and Gold carpeting. About the ceilings with rough hewn beams and the big round stage and the beautiful Dance Floor! I'll tell 'em where to have a Wedding... Business Meeting... Convention... Presentation... Reception... Shower... Banquet... or even a Convention for half a thousand people after a time! I'll tell 'em about dancing on the balcony... and Continental Cuisine... and the Handsome Host." "S' true," Vladimir had the Piemontese Club for MANY years... and Vladimir's Diner Inn on Livernois and is known throughout the State for his most excellent service. Born in Pennsylvania, this fellow has fought in four different wars... including the Korean conflict. He was a P.O.W. He has history of outstanding Citizenship that rivals his background in serving the public. And he has the memory of what he always thought life would be if he made it back!! Well, life is every beautiful thing it can be, when he caters your Party! VLADIMIR'S, at 28125 Grand River (at 8 Mi.), in Farmington, is in a class by itself! (I can take it from here, pardon) Be his Guest! Come visit this outstanding facility. It's breathtaking!

POPPA'S DAY IS EVERY DAY at Mr. Mike's, because when YOU don't take him there... he takes himself there, just for the fun of it! So... g'wan along, and find out what the fun is all about! MR. MIKE'S, at 35323 Ford Rd., is just at the corner of Wayne Rd., and Father's Day really is going to be a good one, with a couple Guitars... and Family Dining from 7 aye'm till 2 the next morning! That gives you nineteen hours to make the Scene on that ONE DAY of the year you want to take Father everywhere... give him an entire day of being Royalty! And wear your new tank-top... you'll feel right at home in this roaring 20's... rinky-tink piano... Tiffany lamp & Ice Cream Chair atmosphere! The Kids join in the fun... Dad may want a huge T-Bone... Jr. may want a Chili-dog... Mother may want a figger-watchers special Chopped Sirloin... or you may just want a B-I-G chilly pitcher of Drought Beer! Why not? And people sing... and music plays... and happy sets in... and the day a Family doesn't have a great day or evening at Mr. Mike's, it'll be the fourth of never!!

"W-H-Y DOES EVERYBODY read "Scene About Town" at Victor's?" Because, m'dear... Victor's is that quiet place where you get lost inna corner and read for two hours. Victor's is that nice place where you can park 'n' shop... and walk back to the car again... without ever leaving the lot! Victor's is where one would jest natchery go to concentrate on things like Shakespeare and Cap Patric... and maybe more on good food, too, we must admit. But it is a 24-hours-a-day we-NEVER-close type place where they won't say a whisper if you spend an hour reading! As it happens, it takes about an hour to work your way through one of those GIGANTIC special charbroiled U.S. Choice "Hamburger" meal-inna-bun type things. When VICTOR'S serves a "Hamburger"... it comes up onna toasted bun, with lettuce, tomato, sweet Bermuda onions, French Fries... AND your choice of Beverage! And in the meantime, your neighbor can finish her shopping, and still have plenty of time to join you there for a cuppa coffee. Unsurpassed Coffee, that is! So tell your neighbor, too. You see, VICTOR'S is at: 34410 FORD RD., at the corner of Wildwood, out in front of Topps... A & P... Bi-Lo Drugs... OH! T-H-A-T place!! Yep.

Faith Methodist breaks ground

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the educational unit at the new site of the Faith United Methodist Church, Michigan Ave. and Denton Rd., Denton, were held following the 11 a.m. church services Sunday.

The educational unit, the initial phase of the church's three phase building program at the site, will have 3,942 square feet of activity space and cost an estimated $85,000.

The total cost of the planned building program, with 10,000 square feet of space is reported to be $220,000.

Attending the groundbreaking ceremonies were more than 250 members of the church and Methodist church officials.

On Dec. 7, 1869, the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Village of Denton was dedicated. It was built on ground which had been purchased from Samuel Y. Denton, had a seating capacity of 250 and was built at a cost of $3,000.

Gordon C. Silvey, 35, lifelong resident of Romulus and a 14 year member of the Jaycees has been awarded the highest and "most coveted" Jaycee award.

Silvey, the father of five children, resides at 36831 Porter St., Romulus.

At the annual officers' banquet of the Romulus Jaycees held recently in Westland, Silvey was presented with the Jaycee International Senatorship Award.

In the fall of 1969, a Centennial Week was held commemorating the 100 years of service the church had given to the community.

On Sunday, Feb. 12, 1967, members of the newly merged Sheldon and Denton Methodist Churches were joined as one congregation by Bishop Dwight E. Loder at an unity service in the church sanctuary.

On Sunday last, another step in the progress and growth of the church was taken when the groundbreaking services were conducted.

The JCI Award is the highest that can be given to a Jaycee and is the only one ever awarded in the Romulus Chapter.

The award represents leadership, ability, community service and dedication to mankind.

Silvey began his Jaycee career in 1957. He has held the offices of Michigan Jaycee vice-president.

Group pictures will be taken by a professional photographer of every grandfather, father and grandson immediately following the morning worship service.

A 4 by 5-inch color picture will be given free to every three male generation group.

Patrolmen Richard Davidson and Paul Benyo, who were on lake patrol duty, reported that they spotted the five ranging in age from 15 to 22 swimming toward "Fireworks Island", located west of Belleville Bridge and some distance from the shoreline.

Robert Thompson, 15, of Coldwater, appeared to be "near exhaustion".

They were lifted from the water as were John Danielczuk, 22, of Pampo Beach, Fla. Harold Killiam, 20, of Coldwater, and Larry Sims, 18, of Cooksville, Tenn.

Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael reported to City Council last Thursday night that the two new facilities, located on the northeast corner of Goddard and S. Wayne Rds. are not ready for occupancy.

He added that when the city administrative offices are completely moved into the new Municipal Building, 11111 S. Wayne Rd., a new dedication date and open house program will be announced.

He said that the announcement would be made in ample time to arrange schedules and programs for the week-long open house.

A Civic Center Grand Opening Committee has been formed and has been working on preparations for the grand opening of the new community facilities.

Mayor Carmichael disclosed that a financial contribution from the Romulus Homeowners Association toward the purchase of books for the new Romulus Library has been received by the committee.

He called upon the community to make contributions to the Library Book Fund.

Contributors will have their names inscribed on the inside pages of the books purchased with their donations for all who make use of the library facilities to see.

Los Conquistadores de Mexico, a group of Spanish students at the South Junior High School, Belleville, and their sponsor Mrs. Janet Verde, are making final plans for their study trip.

The students will be flying to Mexico City and traveling from there by train to Zazatecas. It will be an overnight train trip northwestward through the mountains. Most of the students have never ridden on a train and are looking forward to this experience.

At Zazatecas, they will stay in Mexican homes much as the exchange students stay in American homes. While there, they will attend classes at the Institute Hispanoamericano.

On July 3, they will return to Mexico City where they have an invitation to stay five days with the grandparents of one of the students. This will give them an opportunity to see the sights in Mexico City. They will return to Detroit on July 8.

PCHA investigation snagged

Salisbury said at the March 25 board meeting that he had documentary proof of the charges he was making. He has been challenged repeatedly by other board members to produce such evidence.

He hasn't done so and apparently will not do so for the Attorney General either.

Mrs. Virtue said that "investigation" was not the proper word to describe what her office is presently involved in with PCHA.

The assistant attorney general explained that since a full-scale state investigation in 1965 and 1966, which resulted in the ouster of then-PCHA Director Kenneth W. Gremore and criminal and civil charges against him and other board officials for improper disbursement of funds, the Authority had been required to submit detailed annual reports to the state and to keep its officials and records available to the attorney general's office for inquiries extending beyond the annual reports.

Mrs. Virtue said, "We are voluntarily continuing the inquiry on our own."

"We are doing what we have been doing, but more intensively - but not because anyone has asked us." Apparently the step-up is the result of various reports reaching Lansing, including the anonymous letters.

Editorial:

Salisbury should get out of PCHA

We get the feeling that the Peoples Community Hospital Authority is getting knifed in the back by a board member whose loud barking has never revealed any of the biting evidence he claims he has about PCHA corruption and mismanagement.

Tracy E. Salisbury, board member and councilman from Ecorse, has ranted, raved and verbally abused board members with no apologies for his immature tactics.

We have given him every benefit of doubt while waiting to see if his many charges were, in fact, substantial.

Now, however, the man who has told PCHA Executive Director Karl S. Klicka that "your days are numbered," has done likewise to Board Chairman Donald J. Pizzimenti; the man who has claimed there "were and still are" board members with conflicts of interest; the man who led his city council in drafting a resolution charging "featherbedding" as a result of "pecuniary interest arrangements," illegality in the new PCHA budget, and a lack of control over major authority expenditures; this same man will now apparently not step forward when his chance is perfect to reveal the documented evidence he says he has of the many charges he has made.

Salisbury raised a big stink when he vowed to involve the State Attorney General and Wayne County Prosecutor in the investigation.

Well, now the Attorney General is involved, and is requesting information on the charges that it has heard.

And now Salisbury says that he doesn't think an interview with the Attorney General will be necessary. "I don't want to see anybody hurt or embarrassed as far as investigation goes," he said. "The only thing I want to see are results and changes."

We think it is a little late for such well-wishing, and perhaps Salisbury's way of wiggling out of presenting facts he may or may not have.

The "hurt" has already been accomplished within the board of directors, with two sharply divided factions deeply distrustful of each other.

The "embarrassment" of the hospital authority is apparent. Most of them have not forgotten the scandal that came close to leveling the PCHA in 1966.

Salisbury seems to worry little that the charges he makes will die quickly through his own negligence, leaving an undeserved crack in the solid reputation the board has been building for five years.

With such unconcern, perhaps Salisbury should think about leaving.

committee within the Authority, which is along the lines that Salisbury suggested to Board Chairman Pizzimenti, he says he thinks expenditures will be more closely scrutinized for the board.

The charges and demands for investigation, therefore, may die a quiet death within the next few weeks, since neither Salisbury nor the anonymous letters writers seem inclined to be interviewed by the Attorney General, and since the Attorney General will apparently take no further investigative action without facts supporting the need for such action.

Anchor's shuts out leaders

Morgan's streak cut at 7

Morgan Manor may be the leader in the Romulus Adult Softball League, but the seven-game winner isn't going to streak through the league without at least one loss.

Anchor Block, the defending champ, made sure of that last week as it posted a 7-0 defeat on to the frontrunners' record. Chuck Hazen scattered four Morgan hits and slammed a three-run homer in the second to lead the way.

Rick Raglia led Anchor's assault, hammering three of their 15 hits.

Anchor's defense was flawless which coupled with Hazen's strong pitching determined the outcome of the crucial battle.

Anchor also beat the Romulus Refugees, 13 to 2. Ralph Rakotz was the winning pitcher and he clouted a three-run home run.

Morgan Manor ran its win streak to six Thursday by besting Theodore Limousine 11 to 8. Dave Shallows broke up a 7 to 7 tie with a three run round tripper. Bob Brothers and Randy Luczak also homered for Morgan as Joe Flint recorded his sixth win of the season.

Walter's Bar trimmed Alden Electric 7-6. Mike Kingsbury scored the winning run, chased in by Gary Robbins, who was 3-for-3 with two doubles and a triple.

Romulus Progressive rallied for eight runs in the sixth to overtake Five Points Bar 12 to 9.

Trailing 9 to 4, Progressive opened the sixth with singles by Fred Eberline and Harmon

Ellis doubled and Ron Dick, John Sterling and Walt Drewno singled.

Eberline then chased home the eighth run of the inning with a sacrifice fly.

Al Ellis and Ron Dick for Progressive and George Mitchell and Carey of Five Points all had 3 hits in 4 trips.

Cue Corners scored seven runs in the first innings as the first nine hitters reached base hits, then went on to win 14 to 6 from Alden Electric. A six-run sixth inning put the game out of Alden's reach. Gary Nichols hit a three run homer for the Corners. Don Smith was the winning pitcher and Bob

Youth rules All-Area golf

By DANN BARKUME

A blend of youth and experience highlights the 1971 edition of The Daily Eagle's All-Area prep golf team. The high school linksmen selected to the mythical squad earned their positions by way of their finish at the Western Wayne Golf Tournament, held last week at the Salem Hills Golf Club in Salem Township.

Only one senior made it to the finale this year, the rest of the team is comprised of a mixture of talented juniors and sophomore, all of whom will be back next year.

The return of five out of the six top golfers ensures a strong season and an outstanding tournament again next year.

Medalist at the annual tournament was sophomore Jack Wright of Livonia Franklin, who heads this year's dream team. Wright fired a sizzling 78 at the Western Wayne meeting, recording scores of 40 and 38 en route to picking up the individual title and helping Franklin pick up the team title this year. Wright, only a sophomore, shows much promise as this was his first season under the direction of Livonia Franklin Coach, Bob Visser.

Garden City West's Mike Dobos was a great asset to Tiger Coach Dick Kitzman's team and Dobos recorded a fine 79, to take second place honors. A 16-year-old sophomore, Dobos also shows much potential, reaching the heights of success in his first year of high school competition.

Dobos fired a 41 going out in last week's tournament and came back with a sizzling 38 to take runner-up honors. His fine effort paced West to a fourth place finish in the team standings.

Belleville's Craig Barnett was the big man for Sam Vicchy's Tigers all season long. Barnett earned medalist honors in several Belleville meets this year and consistently recorded the low score for Vicchy's corps of linksmen. His 81 netted him a third place finish in individual competition as his scores of 38-43 proved that the Belleville junior's two years of prep experience have been advantageous. Barnett should prove to be a threat to opposition golfers each time he steps to the tee next season.

Livonia Franklin's domination to the Northwest Suburban conference as well as the All-Area squad this year.

Brzys, a three year veteran, is a major cog in Franklin's successful machine and is a big reason why Visser earned the title of Coach of the Year for the 1971 campaign. Brzys recorded an 82 and earned fourth place at the Western Wayne tourney this year.

Belleville earned second place in the team standings with a great deal of help from sophomore Chris Birk, who shared the Tiger spotlight with Barnett this year. In his first year of competition, Birk battled Barnett for low honors throughout the season, beating out his teammate on several occasions.

With two years of competition ahead of him, Vicchy is confident that this 15-year-old standout will become one of

Giants, Tigers hold slim lead

An evenly-balanced Belleville Little League continued to wage diamond warfare last week as the Giants maintained their slim one game edge over the Cubs to remain at the steering wheel in the National League, while the Tigers have a slim half-game edge over the Yanks and Twins over in the American League.

The Giants narrowly missed nosediving for their second loss of the campaign, but hung on to defeat the upstart Pirates 8-6 in a game which was riddled with errors. Dave Lundell was the winning pitcher. He received offensive support from his teammates who hammered out three home runs.

Lundell, Kenny McCarty and Lance McArthur all connected and had circuit clouts.

On Saturday, the Giants met the Mets and avenged their lone loss 6-3. Robby Laney was the starting and winning pitcher. Lundell smacked a pair of homers in the game.

The Giants maintain their grip on first place by defeating the expansion club, Astros, 16-2. Lundell, the winning pitcher, aided his own cause by again socking a couple that went for the distance. The two homers brought his total to five for the season.

McArthur also banged out a round tripper. It was his third of the current campaign.

Elsewhere in the National League, the Pirates picked up a pair of victories as they overwhelmed the Astros 16-0 as Pat Anguila twirled a four-hitter to earn the shutout. The Pirates also turned back a determined Cardinals ball club, 6-2. Steve Stillwagon chalked up the victory. For five innings, the Pirate hurler had a no-hitter but a last inning Cardinal rally netted the losers their two runs.

The Braves blew an early 2-0 lead and dropped a 6-5 decision to the Cubs. With two away, Jeff Smith belted a

Visser is selected as golf coach of year

Though it has been a rather bleak year for area high school golf teams, the exception is provided by Livonia Livonia Franklin which managed to capture the Western Wayne Invitational and placed third in the tough Northwest Suburban Conference where Birmingham Groves dominated the scene. Groves captured the class A state title. One reason for Franklin's success is Coach Bob Visser's relentless accent on the fundamentals. With a team made up of mostly underclassmen, Visser has been able to produce title contenders.

"Golf is so simple and yet so complex that if one doesn't continuously practice the game he doesn't stand a chance," said Visser. "It's a challenge for the individual who must display a unique sort of talent. He is always battling the course and himself."

Fant receives track letter

Among the 29 athletes who were awarded track letters this season from Western Michigan University was Belleville's Mike Fant, an 880-man. The 29 lettermen formed the nucleus of a WMU team that won its 13th Mid-American Conference track championship in the last 14 years.

NEW TARTAR CAPTAIN - George Breaz, 1967 graduate of New Boston Huron, has been selected as one of Wayne State University's football co-captains following spring drills. Breaz, a senior at WSU is a three year veteran, but has been bothered with injuries throughout most of his college career. A six foot, two inch 210 pounder, Breaz will be used primarily as a defensive linebacker, but could also help Tartar Coach Vern Gale in the offensive backfield.

Breaz is picked Tartar co-captain

Wayne State University capped its 1971 spring football drills by naming a pair of seniors-to-be as its co-captains for the coming fall. One of the choices if former New Boston Huron High star George Breaz.

Selected by team vote to lead the 1971 Tartars are fullback Breaz and fullback-middle guard Ed Moten (Detroit-Western).

Coach Vern Gale lauded the selection of the pair as "Excellent."

"They are good choices. We had a good group of seniors to choose from. We probably could have gone with any of our seniors and been well off. We've been extremely fortunate in the past three years to have good crops of senior leaders. This year's voting was close which is indicative of the leadership you should be getting from your seniors. This will be important to us this fall," said Gale.

Each of the players stands 6-2 and weighs in at 210.

Breaz, a 1967 graduate of Huron High where former Tartar quarterback Tom Grange was his coach, played sparingly on the 7-2 Tartar team of 1967. He sat out all of the 1968 season after knee surgery. Dogged by injuries in 1969, he missed the first three games of the season with a broken finger.

Breaz came on to stand out as a two-way performer and capped the season with a 149-yard rushing day (in 16 carries, a 9.3 average) against Central Michigan in the season finale. He figures to get a call first for defensive duty at linebacker this fall, but Gale won't hesitate to turn to Breaz for certain offensive situations.

Breaz is a pre-law major who is married. He was born in Trenton and now resides in Wyandotte. He was WSU's fourth-leading rusher in 1970 with 172 yards and scored four TDs in the 6-2 season to tie for the team scoring lead. He averaged 40 minutes of play per game.

Moten is a 25-year old product of Detroit Western High and played for former WSU gridders Hal Beardsley. A guard and defensive end as a prep, he waited several years before enrolling at Highland Park JC and transferring to WSU in the fall of 1969. He played little in 1969, but bloomed last year when shifted from linebacker to defensive middle guard in mid-season. He came on to cop the team's "Break-Maker" Award by accumulating points for covering and causing fumbles, tackling the passer for a loss and blocking kicks.

Married and the father of two, Michelle (5) and Marc (2) Moten went out for wrestling at WSU for the first time in 1970-71 and lettered as the team's 190-pounder.

Sports retort

More about prep sports violence

By Dann Barkume

Tournaments conducted by the Michigan High School Athletic Association in several sports have come under fire recently, following a wave of what some people call, "irresponsible violence."

Everyone remembers the incidents following Detroit Kettering's loss to Flint Northern in the Class A title game in the basketball tournament this year when Kettering supporters went on a rampage and destroyed everything from seats in the Chrysler Arena in Ann Arbor to radio equipment used by sportscasters.

People in these parts also remember the pasting that Romulus took following an incident right after they lost the regional basketball crown to Ann Arbor Pioneer at Adrian. Romulus was put on a year's probation following damage to the high school and a couple of knifings.

That incident has cooled and is almost forgotten, but it popped up recently when a group of reporters and coaches got together for a jam session.

A Romulus coach feels that the school was crucified. "It wasn't our students that did it, it was the drop outs and street bums that hang around. Our kids (Romulus High School students and members of the team) were instrumental in quelling the violence. I was really proud of what they did."

A figure for the damage was set at around $600. A reporter from Adrian was in the group. "I never saw such action in my life," he said. "I was in the press box and I didn't believe it. I felt bad and I wrote an editorial questioning the Adrian Police Department for what I thought was a lack of manpower at the game. It was the first time anything like that happened and I didn't know who was to blame, since Romulus lost I guess I pointed the finger."

The Romulus staff member countered, "Look at what happened at Ann Arbor after Kettering lost the state title. They caused several thousands of dollars damage and relatively nothing was done about it. A couple of non-students blow their tops at a Romulus game and we get stuck with athletic probation. I don't think it's fair. Romulus isn't one of the big name schools in the state, so we get blitzed for something our students didn't want to happen. They have to take the blame for something they didn't do at all."

He went on to say that a committee consisting of the coaches from the various varsity sports at Romulus has been set up and they are looking for ways to cut down or eliminate the problem in the future.

"Some people are afraid to come to games now and we could lose our whole athletic program," he said.

"They are considering several methods, short of selling tickets only during school hours so they can control who comes in and who doesn't."

Romulus is an example of several schools faced with the same problem. Big games are always emotional and tempers can fly very easily. The majority of the spectators keep their reactions down to an occasional boo but some get carried away.

The MHAA is also concerned with the problem. Allen Bush, MHAA director, said that a time revision has already been put into effect for next year's basketball tournament, hoping to keep trouble to a minimum.

The Class A final game will be played in the afternoon and the C and D finals will take place in the evening. Class B will continue to play their state final contest in the morning as in year's past.

With the time change, the MHAA hopes to eliminate some of the trouble since the bigger schools will have more fans at afternoon games.

It's time to act. A few ruffians have caused high school athletics to get a bad name. The students and athletes are suffering because of increased control at athletic events and spectators worry about what might happen if they go to see a particular game in person.

Not everyone is a good loser and trouble will continue in spots. The biggest problem facing athletic departments in high schools and the MHAA is eliminating the stigma that has developed concerning high school athletic events.

The state baseball tournament was initiated this year and so far the fans have been fantastic. They show tremendous support but they are keeping their cool.

Tournaments of any kind generate a great deal of enthusiasm and, as the team goes farther along in the tournament, the support generally grows and enthusiasm increases. It shows that high school athletics is still popular and has a strong chance of full recovery from recent problems with violence.

If athletics have to be eliminated, it will have a void in high school activities that could never be filled.

School pride and morale would dip and students would lose interest.

Martin took the loss. Cue Corners collected 23 hits in the contest and Alden picked up 8.

Romulus Progressive ran its win streak to three last Tuesday with a 15 to 2 win over Walters Bar. Harmon Schonfeld hit a two run homer, and pitcher Bob Maronen had three hits in four trips to bat in three runs in leading Progressive's 19 hit attack.

Mike Kingsbury led Walters eight hit attack with a two run homer. Bob Maronen picked up his second win of the season and George Coughlin took the loss.

The Romulus Refugees scored seven times in the second inning and went on to defeat Five Points Bar 12 to 10. Robbie Smylie's three run homer provided the Refugees winning margin.

Baum funeral Home moved to within a game of League leader Morgan with a 26 to 0 white wash of Guardian Casting. Ivan Kinshella allowed three hits in gaining the win, while Baum smashed out 36. Ron Kampsen hit for the cycle with a homer, triple, double and single in five trips. Ted Marken was 5 for 5 and Dave Hoffman had 3 for 3 while Ed Worden socked 2 for 2.

Streaking to their fifth consecutive victory, Morgan Manor took command of the Romulus Adult Softball League early in the season, but the frontrunners are still in danger of toppling to a host of challengers who are in close range.

Two impressive victories — a 18-12 trimming of Cue Corners and a 16-6 rout of Spearman's kept Morgan's winning streak intact. Right behind the leaders are Alden Electric and Anchor Block, who have won three while losing one in the current campaign.

Anchor Block fell from the undefeated ranks. Thursday, losing a tough ball game to Spearman's 5 to 4. Then they came back Tuesday to squeeze out a 5 to 4 over Theodore Limousine. Rick Paglia and Dave Rakotz each had two hits in three trips for Anchor and Ralph Rakotz was the winning pitcher.

Alden Electric stayed in striking range by defeating slumping Romulus Progressive 4 to 0 last week. Dan Peterlin tripled home Rich Heggie in the first inning with the only run Alden needed. Alex Sands doubled in the second inning and scored on Greg Sciwiski's single. Alden scored the last two runs of the game in the sixth when Sands doubled with the bases full.

Alden collected 10 hits in the game while Progressive could manage only four with Harmon Schonfeld getting half of those with two singles in three trips.

Alden's used a 19-hit attack to down Baum Funeral Home 11 to 5. Bob Sr. Amand and Dan Peterlin had three hits in four trips. Peterlin drove in six runs. Sr. Amand allowed 11 hits in picking up the win. Ivan Kinshella was charged with the loss.

Baum's used three big innings to defeat Five Points Bar 16 to 6, scoring four runs in the first and third innings, then with the score Baum 10 and Five Points 5 Baum erupted with six runs in the seventh to put the game away.

Richard Healey singled, Ray Harford, Ron Kampsin and Dave Hoffman doubled, Don Marken reached base safely when his fly ball was dropped, Rich Marken then singled, Dave Pichan doubled and Ted Marken ended the flurry by clearing the bases with a triple.

The game's only homer was hit by Five Points George Mitchell in the first inning.

Kinshella allowed 13 hits in gaining the win and Bob Hamel was tagged with 22 hits in the losing effort.

Romulus Progressive

scored 16 times in the opening inning on the way to a 22 to 4 victory over Romulus Refugees. Lead off man Jim Halcomb batted three times in the first getting a single, a double and scoring twice before flying out to left to end the inning. Bob Maronen allowed eight hits in picking up the win and Progressive smashed out 22 hits. Fred Eberline and John Sterling homered for Progressive while Scheffer hit a round tripper for the Refugees.

TONY GRAY
Keeps Swinging

Gray proves asset to Ohio U. '9'

Tony Gray, Ohio University's pepper pot second baseman, and a graduate of Romulus High School in Michigan, is currently batting at a .270 clip for the Bobcats.

The slick fielding second baseman has been on the pivot side of 28 double plays in 31 games for the Bobcat nine this year. His quick hands and sure glove make him one of the best second basemen in the conference.

At Romulus High, Gray played football, baseball and basketball, winning letters in all three. In baseball, Gray was selected All-Wayne County in 1968. Enrolled in the College of Business as a public relations major, Tony is an avid flyer and a member of the Ohio University Flying Bobcats.

After college, Tony hopes to either play professional baseball or become a commercial pilot. In the meantime he continues to be a key factor in the Bobcat's high flying 29-5 record so far this season.

The Bobcats, under Coach Bob Wren, captured their fourth straight Mid-American Conference crown this year.

Youth commands All-area golf the finest golfers the area has seen in recent years.

Franklin's domination continues on the 1971 squad with junior Dean Alexander. A veteran of two years on the Patroit golf team, Alexander has shown promise this year and Visser expected him to reach his full potential next season. Alexander's 83 at the Western Wayne meeting was good for fifth place in the individual standings.

With three spots on the six man team filled by Patriots, Franklin easily dominated this year's area golf scene. With Wright and Alexander coming back again next year, coach Visser has a strong inclination that Franklin will again wear the area golf crown next year.

Belleville's Vicchy also has hopes of even more success next year and Birk and Barnett could give the Patroits a run for their money when it comes time to prove who is number one in next year's golf campaign.

Belleville trio stars

Three former Belleville High baseball stars are generating news on the diamond at Eastern Michigan University this season. The trio, Bruce Bara, Gary Gentle and Dick Wenzel, also has made the Associated Newspapers' All-Area '9' at one time or other.

Wenzel, on the freshmen squad, has posted a perfect 3-0 pitching record, while Gentle, a catcher, is batting the ball around at a .289 clip and Bara, an outfielder, has compiled a .310 batting average.

All three boys played for Coach Vitold Kaminskis while at Belleville High.

Fear should be out of the question.

It's not just a problem to be solved by a few, everyone should pitch in and help bring back the full support that high school athletics once had.

such athletic events. Schools, coaches, students and followers have been fantastic and trouble, in most cases, has been non-existent. It would be a shame to see such events cancelled and it is also unfortunate that some schools must face probationary periods because of the actions of a few.

The stigma can be easily removed from high school athletics and the excitement and fun can once again take over.

The Cubs came back and scored in the second when an error with bases loaded gave them two more runs.

In their second, the Cubs retaliated when Bob Burkett beat out a bunt and eventually scored on an error. Cubs' Tom Lane pounded a homer in the third inning to help Cicotte earn the triumph. Jeff Smith was tagged for the loss.

In a pitchers' duel which ended in a Dodger 1-0 triumph over the Mets, a fourth inning run was the difference in the ball game.

Winning pitcher George Sheffer and loser Ron English matched goose eggs for three innings, then Ray Green started a rally with a lead off walk. He stole second and reached third when the peg to cut him down went wide of the bag. Charles Chileders' sacrifice fly drove in what proved to be the winning run.

The Dodgers were held to two hits by English, while Sheffer tossed a one hitter, striking out 10 en route to the victory. Paul Lauth broke up Sheffer's no-hit bid with a single to left field in the fifth inning.

In another game, Sheffler got the Dodgers off to a 2-0 lead with a homer in the first inning and the Dodgers padded their lead 5-3 in the third frame as winning pitcher Tom Lane of the Cubs and Ray Green of the Dodgers matched homers.

The Cubs narrowed the margin down to 5-4 in the fifth stanza as Lane blasted his second round tripper of the game. The Cubs loaded the bases in the sixth and Jim Dyer delivered a double to Defensively, the Dodgers got themselves out of jam, pulling off four doubles.

The Dodgers also chalked up a 7-5 victory over the Braves last week.

The Braves jumped off to a 5-0 lead in the opening inning, then went on to blow that margin. They were shut out the rest of the game by Ray Green who made his first start as a Dodger pitcher.

The Dodgers battled back and went ahead 7-5 in the fourth, but the game was called in the sixth because of rain. The Dodgers received a double and triple from Tim Allison.

Golf coach of year

Though Visser is happy with the season, he is saddened by the prospects of the future of golfing at the high school. An ominous cloud hangs over the sport because of the lack of funds.

"We don't know if we will be able to field a team this fall because we apparently don't have the money, so something will have to be cut out of the athletic program and I fear it will be golf."

Meanwhile, for his outstanding efforts, the Associated Newspapers are honored to name Visser as their Coach of the Year in golf.

Officials meet for drug talks

Romulus Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael, Superintendent of Schools Robert L. Shrubs planted at Denton

Students at Denton Elementary School, Belleville, bought new type shrubbery to plant around the school building.

The Denton School area is shady, so spruce and other types of evergreens could not be planted in that area.

Ten boys and girls helped in the planting. They traveled to a nursery in Ann Arbor with Mrs. Mary Murrel, fifth grade teacher and Robert Cook, principal, to select and transport the evergreens.

McConighy and members of the Romulus Drug Use and Abuse Council met recently with area physicians, psychiatrists, neurologists, pharmacists, social workers and Annapolis Hospital staff members at a luncheon meeting arranged and chaired by E.A. Goerke, MD.

Dr. Goerke, who practices in Romulus, led a discussion about drug abuses and investigated possible solutions.

A member of the Annapolis hospital staff informed the group about a seminar held at Harvard University regarding Adolescent Medicine. He described symptoms and effects of drug abuses.

The group was informed about "Act 54" that provides federal funds through the department of state for a comprehensive rehabilitation and treatment program.

Earl Lamb, assistant principal at Romulus SENIOR High School and chairman of the Romulus Drug Council, outlines the problems he has encountered.

Dewar on honor roll for insurance sales

Richard A. Dewar, 42 Locast Dr., Belleville, has won a place on the honor roll of the Combined Insurance Company of America for writing more than one hundred introductory accident policies during a special sales campaign week benefiting members of the Boys Clubs of America in his home state. Through his accomplishment, he helped the company achieve a sales volume of 67,621 "Little Giant" accident income protection policies in its Mid-Continent division, covering the states of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, Tennessee and Wisconsin.

The week-long campaign was the insurance representatives' way of saying "happy birthday" to W. Clement Stone, board chairman and chief executive officer of Combined Insurance Company of America. Boys Clubs across the nation will receive contributions based on the sales volume of Combined and its three subsidiary companies. Stone, a member of the National Executive Committee of the Boys Clubs of America will contribute equal sums as his personal gifts.

Cub fathers preparing for Pinewood Derby

The Derby is slated to climax an all day picnic at Lower Huron Metro Park on Saturday, Aug. 28.

At the recent pack meeting, at Cory Elementary School, honors were given as follows: Douglas Curley was given his Bobcat pin as a new Cub Scout. Jerry Cusmano received his Webelo's Artist and Aquanaut awards. Aaron Chandler earned his Webelo's Artist and Sportsman awards and Donald Grove was welcomed into the Webelo's Den.

Michael Cole, who has completed his Tenderfoot requirements was welcomed into Boy Scouts during a special ceremony.

Cubmaster LeRoy Sims was also honored with an engraved plaque recognizing his many years of leadership and service to the boys of Cub Pack 735.

Girl Scouts help in library move

The staff at the Romulus Public Library, located at 36541 Goddard Rd. began this week moving operations to the new building. The date set for the opening of the new library is tentatively June 28.

Volunteers from Girl Scout Troop 416 came to the library on June 2 and 3 to help prepare for the moving. They worked hard dusting books and packing boxes.

The eleven girls who participated were: Gigi Champaign, Lisa Oakley, Cindy Haveranek, Kathy Milton, Vicky Farrugia, Susan Farrugian, April Forella, Debbie Kalfayan, Kathy Kalfayan,

Gatlinburg honeymoon follows May nuptials

A week-long honeymoon in Gatlinburg, Tennessee followed the May 22 wedding of Tonya L. Preston and Michael J. Dunayczan.

Arrangements of gold gladiolas and daisies graced the altar of Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Ypsilanti as Rev. Leifelt presided at the four thirty o'clock ceremony.

The double ring nuptials united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Preston of 873 Davis Steel, Ypsilanti, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Dunayczan of 20551 Elwell Road, Belleville.

ESCORTED UP the aisle by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of white organza frosted with peau d'ange lace, seed pearls and crystalites. A high lace collar accented the empire bodice which was styled with wristpoint sleeves with the toe-touching skirt drifting into a full-length train.

The bride's three-quarter veil of silk illusion was caught to a cap of peau d'ange lace studded with seed pearls and crystalites. A spray of white daisies on a white Bible completed her bridal ensemble.

The bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Patricia Sandy of Wayne, served as matron of honor with Judy Whitfield, Janice Powers, Deborah Cahill, Mrs. Charlene Amburger cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Deborah Feuerstein, all of Ypsilanti, as bridesmaids.

Identically dressed, they wore gold floral print gowns with high rise waistlines and sweeping ballroom skirts trimmed in daisy lace and green velvet.

TAMMY L. PRESTON, the bride's 10-year old sister, wore a miniature version of the senior attendant's frocks for her role as flowergirl. Her nosegay of white daisies was tied with matching gold ribbon.

Seven-year old Walter S. Dunayczan, Jr. served as ringbearer at his brother's wedding.

Bruce E. Kemp of New Boston was asked to be best man. The corps of ushers included Steve Kayfesh and Hugh Feuerstein, Jr., both of Ypsilanti; Doug Guzel of Belleville; Randy Kemp of Toledo, Ohio; and Terry Kemp of New Boston.

Mrs. Preston wore for her daughter's wedding an aqua polyester knit dress with seed pearl and lace accents and matching jacket. Mrs. Dunayczan chose a green sheath with bishop sleeves and matching accessories.

SOME 350 GUESTS gathered at the P.N.A. Hall for the reception which followed.

The new Mrs. Dunayczan is a Ypsilanti High School graduate who attended Washtenaw Community College. She is currently employed as a secretary in the University of Michigan's accounting department.

Dad's Day doings

Let the children help prepare dinner on Father's Day! It will delight them to be a part in pleasing their dad. They can prepare a crisp salad of lettuce, tomatoes and radishes to accompany his steak. Or, they can set the table, arranging in front of his place of honor the carving set and hot pad for the roast. If barbecued beefburgers are dad's bag, the children can shape the ground beef into patties.

Barbara Koster is bride

Candlelight ceremony read at Waltz church

St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Waltz was the setting June 12 for the candlelight ceremony which united Barbara Kathleen Koster and Kenneth Wayne Sader in holy matrimony.

Arrangements of mums and gladiolas graced the altar and candelabras on the pews formed a candlelighted aisleway as the bride approached on the arm of her father.

Rev. Donald J. Mossman from Concordia Lutheran Junior College, Ann Arbor, presided at the seven o'clock wedding with Janice Hoehner of Dearborn performing as soloist.

MR. AND MRS. Elmer Koster of 36173 Felt Road, New Boston, are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Pauline Sader of 1230 S. Sixteenth, Lincoln, Nebraska and the late John Sader.

Some 200 assembled guests witnessed the double-ring nuptials for which Barbara designed her own wedding gown. Fashioned in toe-touching length, the peau de soie and silk organza creation featured an empire waistline, gathered skirt and full, sheer sleeves banded in satin and cuffed with lace appliques.

The same combination was used to border the hem of the slim-line skirt with the lace appliques repeated on the wedding ring collar and high-rise bodice.

An open silk rose set with miniature seed pearls crowned the bride's silk illusion veil which drifted to fingertip length. Completing her bridal finery was a crescent of red sweetheart roses, gardenias, baby's breath, and ivy.

MRS. KENNETH W. SADER

AS HER SISTER'S honor attendant, Beverly K. Koster donned a floor-length frock of mint green miramist with a taffeta underdress and empire waist traced with white satin ribbon. Complimenting her dress was a presentation bouquet of a dozen long-stemmed red roses.

Kristina L. Burtless came from Kankakee, Illinois to be bridesmaid. She was dressed identically to the honor maid. Best man was the bride's brother, David L. Hubert of Chesapeake, Virginia. Ushers were Kenneth W. Paice and James G. Hubert, cousin and nephew of the bride, respectively, both of New Boston.

Gathering at the Romulus Progressive Club for the dinner reception which followed, the 200 guests were greeted by Mrs. Koster in an aqua sleeveless dress with white accessories. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Sader donned a powder blue frock with white accessories. Both mothers were presented with corsages of carnations set with sweetheart roses.

AFTER A HONEYMOON in Northern Michigan, the newly wed Saders will travel to 447 E. Street, Lincoln, Nebraska to make their home.

Barbara, a 1966 alumna of Huron High School, graduated with an Associate of Arts Degree from Concordia Lutheran Junior College, Ann Arbor, in 1968, and with a B.S. Degree in education from Concordia Teachers College, Seward, Nebraska, in 1970. She is presently employed as a sixth grade teacher at Trinity Lutheran School in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Kenneth attended Lincoln High School in Lincoln, Nebraska, served four years with the U.S. Navy Construction Battalion and is now with the City of Lincoln Road Repair Department.

Out of state guests at the wedding arrived from Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Nebraska, Virginia, and Alabama.

treasurer; and June Roberts, secretary.

June Roberts read highlights of each month's meeting during the year. Charlotte Budd gave an interesting reading how a woman's dedication to raising flowers created a chance to meet the first lady of our country.

Following the meeting the women toured Mrs. Wyman's beautiful lakeside garden.

Next month the club will meet for a picnic at Metropolitan park.

Officers installed at Huron Valley Garden Club lunch

The June meeting of the Huron Valley Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Elsie Wyman of Edgedale Drive.

The members met at 12:00 noon for luncheon served by the hostess. The ladies were seated throughout the house and the deck overlooking the lake.

Following lunch was the annual report and installation of officers. Gladys Mast, president; Onnalee Wall, vice president; Lois Hamilton,

McCleary-Nasur vows held on B'ville Lake

In an unprecedented ceremony on Belleville Lake, Barbara Jean McCleary became the bride of Sammie H. Nasur, Jr. Standing in a boat docked in a boatwell, the couple repeated their wedding vows with the Rev. Geneva Kaltenback of Brighton presiding on the dock.

Barbara and Sammie chose the lake for their marriage since they met while she was purchasing a boat from him at his business, Sam's Boats and Motors in Belleville. They also spent most of the summer in their ski boats on the lake and decided the water was the perfect spot for their ceremony.

The June 5 nuptials at four thirty in the afternoon were attended by some 75 friends lined up in their Checkmates boats.

BARBARA, WHO is manager of Bert's Party Store in Brighton, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McCleary of 10884 Bob White Beach, Hamburg. Sammie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sammie Nasur of 1282 Applewood, Lincoln Park.

Walking to the boat with her father, Barbara was dressed in a blue gown with an overlay of white lace. The organza frock was fashioned with long sleeves, a high neckline and a train which extended two yards.

She wore an elbow-length illusion veil and carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and ivy.

A FRIEND FROM Howell, Mrs. Marion Keebler, served as honor attendant in a yellow nylon lace gown styled in formal length with long sleeves. She wore a veiled bow headpiece and held an arrangement of white carnations and yellow rosebuds.

The bridegroom's sister, Cathy Nasur of Lincoln Park, wore a high-necked, sleeveless, pink frock and carried a bouquet of white carnations for her role as bridesmaid.

Doug Nasur was his brother's best man and Pat McCleary was usher at his sister's wedding.

At the reception, which followed in the American Legion Hall in Ecorse, some 150 guests were greeted by Mrs. McCleary in a pink linen dress with companion coat and Mrs. Nasur in an off-white dress with a yellow lace overskirt.

AMONG THOSE congratulating the young couple was Bill Combs, owner of the Checkmates Boat factory in Boycrus, Ohio.

Following a five-day honeymoon at Sandusky, Ohio and the Irish Hills, the newlyweds took up residence at 1310 Applewood, Lincoln Park.

The new Mrs. Nasur graduated from Pinckney High School and her husband from Lincoln Park High.

MRS. ELDA BOHL

After 41 years

Elda Bohl is retiring as cafeteria supervisor

By LEE SMITH
Women's Editor

Although the Elda Bohl touch will be missing when Van Buren Schools re-open in the fall, her presence and influence will be felt for years to come. Having devoted some 41 years to the feeding of the area's school children, she will definitely leave her mark on the schools' cafeteria system.

Her career has witnessed a food program which had its beginnings on a two-burner stove. From a simple no-choice menu served in the school's main corridor, her duties have come to include planning menus in three-month blocks, the selections varying each day.

There are some 6,000 students and teachers who hit the cafeteria lines in the system's 10 schools each day and, if that isn't feeding enmasse, what is!

SHE NOT only plans her own menus but is her own purchasing agent ordering in vast quantities. As cafeteria supervisor, she fills out the mandatory government reports and manages the payroll for the 30 employees in the cafeteria department.

Mrs. Bohl learned 'the ropes' along with her mother, Mrs. Alice Thurstin, as the two managed the schools' first cafeteria lines. She received her formal education from Michigan State Normal College (now Eastern Michigan University) and Michigan State.

When Mrs. Bohl took over as supervisor, her mother was among her first employees. Mrs. Thurstin retired after serving for 15 years but her daughter continued on to fulfill four decades of service to her community.

The mother of two and grandmother of five, Mrs.

Bohl is looking forward to that extra time to spend with her family. It won't be a life of idleness, though, for her plans, we hear, include a trip to Japan in the fall as well as a side-line of teaching ceramics to a local 4-H group.

SINCE HER retirement will be official come July 1, the women employees of the cafeteria system put their heads together and planned a party to honor their 'boss'.

Verdys Shephard, who is cafeteria head at Ellwell School, composed an original poem which spanned her first meeting with Mrs. Bohl up to the present day. Acting as emcee at the May 20 dinner at Metro Inn, Mrs. Shephard presented the honoree with an orchid corsage and a stereo record player on behalf of the staff.

Some 42 women, past and present day workers in the schools, were on hand to pay homage to a lovely lady and to wish her good luck and happy retirement.

Barrett-White wed

Miami Temple scene of vows

In a double ring ceremony June 5 in Miami, Florida, Sandra White and Michael Paul Barrett exchanged wedding vows and rings.

The Miami Baptist Temple was reserved for the late spring wedding which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Stephens of Miami and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barrett of 7829 Beck Road, Belleville.

For her wedding day, the bride chose a floor-length gown of white taffeta designed with a high neckline and long full sleeves cuffed at the wrist. Bands of lace accented the dress and also bordered the bride's illusion mantilla which cascaded to chapel length from a wide, flat Dior bow.

THE BRIDEGROOM'S mother, who drove to Florida with her husband, wore a pink taffeta frock with an overlay of pink lace for the happy occasion.

Following their church reception, the newlyweds spent two weeks honeymooning in Fort Lauderdale, and are now making their home in Greenville, South Carolina, where Michael is teaching Greek at Bob Jones University while doing his graduate work. He also earned his B.A. Degree at B.J. U. where he was affiliated with Epsilon Chi Theta Fraternity.

The new Mrs. Barrett, an affiliate of Theta Mu Theta, attended Bob Jones University and is now employed in its Administrative Office.

Horoscope

Tomorrow's forecast from the Carroll Righter Institute

General tendencies: This is a great day to first think out and then put in effect a new plan of action that intrigues you to pioneer a new line of activity which could be the best means to express yourself in the future. You have more energy now and can accomplish much of a social humanitarian nature.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) A day for much activity. Obtain ideas and data from friends which can be most helpful to you. A good day to put over a fine business deal. Evening is best spent at home.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Instead of getting upset, take care of career matters quietly and intelligently. Know what it is you want of a personal nature, and then go after it in a most decisive manner. Avoid fanfare.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) New projects are attractive to you now. Good friends have the information you need, so contact them early. Do some studying to understand more about it. Something may come up you had not expected. Be happy about it.

Moon Children (June 22 to July 21) Be sure to handle bills and other responsibilities carefully now. Try not to be disappointing with mate. Take care of all those duties that please kin.

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21) You can now do all the work that is expected of you by higher-ups. Also, a good time to aid co-workers. If you work hard, fine benefits can result. Forget hostilities. Be happy.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) If you operate in an efficient way you can impress bigwigs. Find the right items to add to your present wardrobe. Go to a person you are fond of for the favor you want.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) This is the perfect day to get together with a fascinating associate for the amusement you desire. If you give a charming gift it will be

Hawaii studied in class

The fifth graders at the Elwell Elementary School, Belleville, were treated to an Hawaiian afternoon last week.

Miss Sue Seyfried, class teacher, had the opportunity to travel to Hawaii over Easter vacation and presented her students with facts on Hawaii.

She traveled extensively and took numerous slides during the trip. She brought each child back a set of chopsticks which they had an opportunity to use when eating their pineapple and coconut.

The children then put on an Hawaiian play for the other classes.

Old Haggerty is renamed

The Van Buren Township Board has authorized the renaming of Old Haggerty Rd. to Independence Lane.

The township board's action was in concurrence with a request made by the Wayne County Road Commission.

Township Trustee Joseph Hogan made the motion to rename the road. He was supported by Trustee Dominick W. Blend. The motion was approved unanimously by the board.

DANCE RECITAL PARTICIPANTS — The Belleville Area Senior Citizens Club sponsored a Dance Recital at Belleville High School Auditorium last week. Some of the

Dedication ceremonies scheduled for camp

Members and friends of the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council will hold an open house at Camp Linden in Northern Livingston County from 2 to 5 p.m. on Sunday, June 20.

Highlight of the event will be the formal dedication of the new camp buildings constructed with the donations from the 1970 Camp Development Fund Drive.

Total pledges to the drive amount to nearly $450,000 with $250,000 collected thus far and the remainder to be paid over the next two years.

Buildings to be dedicated include the Baird Boat House, named in appreciation of the work of Charles Baird of Ann Arbor.

Three winterized troop houses to be dedicated are: Ruth's House, named for Mrs. Charles Howe of Ann Arbor, in recognition of long service to the council in camping; Edith's House, named for Miss Edith Steere of Ann Arbor in appreciation of her assistance in the counselor-in-training program for many years; and Esther's House, named for Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing of Plymouth in recognition of her service to the council as president from 1964-1970 during which time Camp Linden Development took place.

In addition ground-breaking ceremonies will be held for the Laurin C. Hunter Lodge, dedicated to the memory of the late Mr. Hunter of Ann Arbor, a long-time friend of the Girl Scout organization.

Construction of the Hunter Lodge is scheduled to begin in September. Ground will also be broken for the Allen Administration Building named in recognition of the work of Mr. and Mrs. Wyeth Allen of Ann Arbor, both active volunteers in the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council.

Girl Scouts from Dexter, Westland, Wayne and Ann Arbor have planned dedication ceremonies for all these buildings. Members and friends will attend from all parts of the council, including Washenaw, Livingston and Monroe counties and the western half of Wayne county.

Other new buildings which visitors at the open house may see, but will not be formally dedicated on Sunday, are the caretakers' residence, workshop, and garage and the cooks' cabin. The latter was a gift to the Huron Valley Council from the Plymouth Kiwanis Club.

Invitations to the open house have been sent to all Girl Scout troop leaders and board and committee members as well as to many friends of the organization. The public is invited to attend.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

On Father's Day, dad is 'supposed' to have his slippers brought to him; to have his pipe or cigars handed to him; to have the right to select TV programs of his choice on his special day when he is 'King'... Most dads are realistic though and understand even if these 'Kingship' advantages don't happen.

Lets face it. There are all sorts of fathers, just like all sorts of women and children. Some dads are considerate, some inconsiderate. Some are affectionate, some indifferent. Some are contented, some discontented, some are happy, some unhappy. Some are ambitious, some are not. Some are companions to their families, some are aloof.

In all these contrasts, one thing stands out. Blood relationship is one thing. A friendly relationship is another thing. And a blood relationship without a friendly relationship is tragedy. For all of you who read this, we sincerely hope Father's Day is a triumphant day - a friendly day for all fathers and families everywhere...

Eight parks of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority served a record-breaking attendance of 1,431,689 visitors last month compared to 1,095,764 in May, 1970, with all parks hitting record high attendance.

The Marshbank Metropolitan Park is not included for the 1970-71 figures.

Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford had a record 388,000 last month compared to the 312,000 set in May of 1970 and topping the previous high of 317,000 in 1969.

Lower Huron Metropolitan near Belleville had a record 335,000 visitors last month, surpassing the previous high of 255,600 set in May, 1970.

Willow Metropolitan Park, under development near New Boston and Willow, had 17,300 visitors last month. Only limited facilities are available and the park was not open in May, 1970.

The three HCMA parks in Washtenaw County northwest of Ann Arbor, reported a record breaking 133,009 visitors last month, which surpassed the previous record of 97,194 set in May, 1970. Comparative figures for the three parks are as follows, with 1970 figures in parenthesis: Hudson Mills - 48,696 (38,343); Dexter-Huron - 32,650 (24,054); and Delhi Park - 51,673 (34,797).

Although not the warmest May weather on record, dry conditions and high week-end attendance, plus record Memorial Day weekend crowds were factors that contributed to the record-breaking attendance for May 1971.
